This milestone marks the 10th consecutive year of recognition on Forbes' staffing and recruiting rankings.

MILWAUKEE, June 4, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Manpower, a global leader in contingent staffing and part of the ManpowerGroup® (NYSE: MAN) family of brands, has been named the No. 1 Temporary Staffing Firm in the nation on Forbes' 2026 list of America's Best Temporary Staffing Firms. The independent ranking, developed in partnership with Statista, also placed Manpower among the nation's top five professional recruiting firms, marking the company's tenth consecutive year of recognition on Forbes' staffing and recruiting rankings.

"This distinction is especially meaningful because it reflects the voices that matter most — our clients, candidates and peers," said Raj Namboothiry, Senior Vice President and Head of Manpower U.S. "Today, successful hiring requires a deep understanding of what motivates people and where they can thrive. Our teams bring that understanding to every client and candidate interaction."

Manpower's reach spans more than 70 countries, connecting hundreds of thousands of organizations with skilled talent and helping millions of people find meaningful work each year. In the U.S., the brand combines data-driven recruiting with its PowerSuite® assessment platform and MyPath® skilling program to help both employers and job seekers navigate a labor market reshaped by technology and shifting demand.

The 2026 rankings draw on feedback from approximately 13,800 recruiters, HR leaders, hiring managers and job candidates, generating more than 18,000 recommendations. Firms are ranked by the volume of recommendations received from peers, clients and candidates. Companies do not pay to participate or be selected. The full rankings are available at forbes.com.
