"The acquisition of COMSYS is consistent with our strategy and strengthens the continued expansion of our professional staffing services and outcome-based solutions," said Jeff Joerres, Manpower Inc. Chairman and CEO. "Both are areas where we have significantly grown organically over the past few years, driven by our strategy to provide clients with all the talent they need, particularly in the high demand skill verticals of IT, engineering, finance and accounting."

"Our strategy is an outside-in approach, focusing on services that deliver value to our clients and candidates. We grow our capabilities organically and acquire companies for the combination of financial gain, and strategic and cultural fit for our organization. The culture, expertise, client and consultant base that COMSYS brings to our suite of services, when combined with Manpower Professional and Manpower Business Solutions, accelerates us to being a global leader in the US and around the world," Joerres added.

Manpower previously announced the expiration of its exchange offer for all of the outstanding shares of COMSYS common stock. Based on a preliminary count by the exchange agent for the exchange offer, a total of 19,787,017 COMSYS shares, representing approximately 89% of COMSYS's outstanding common stock on a fully diluted basis, were validly tendered and not withdrawn in the exchange offer, of which 1,599,160 shares, representing approximately 7% of COMSYS's outstanding common stock on a fully diluted basis, were tendered pursuant to notices of guaranteed delivery. All shares that were validly tendered and not withdrawn were accepted for payment in accordance with the terms of the exchange offer and applicable law.

Of the shares tendered, cash elections were made with respect to 17,794,582 shares and stock elections were made with respect to 1,992,435 shares. Based on these preliminary results and the terms of the merger agreement, the preliminary proration of the exchange offer consideration is as follows:

- each COMSYS share for which a stock election or no election was made will be converted into the right to receive 0.304 of a share of Manpower common stock, and
- each COMSYS share for which a cash election was made will be converted into the right to receive $9.81 in cash without interest and 0.135 of a share of Manpower common stock.

These amounts are subject to change based on the final exchange offer results. Manpower will announce the final exchange offer results and the final proration of the exchange offer consideration as promptly as practicable.

Following Manpower's exercise of its "top-up" option in accordance with the previously announced merger agreement with COMSYS, Manpower completed a short-form merger through the procedures available under Delaware law. In the merger, each share of COMSYS common stock not acquired in the exchange offer was converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either (i) $17.65 in cash, without interest, or (ii) 0.304 of a share of Manpower common stock (the same consideration elections available in the exchange offer), in each case subject to proration. Manpower will deliver a letter of election and transmittal to these stockholders to enable them to make the election.

As a result of the merger, shares of COMSYS common stock ceased to be traded on the NASDAQ Global Market after the close of trading today.
