"We are proud to be recognized once again as a global MSP leader for our market impact by Everest Group" said Amy Doyle, SVP and Global Brand Leader, Talent Solutions TAPFIN. "Clients today have more complex workforce needs than ever and this is recognition of our talented teams for their global leadership, data-driven approach and full scope of solutions, including RPO, Right Management and consulting capabilities."

The Everest Group assessment highlights TAPFIN for its use of technology to drive the future of talent management, including remote classification and tableau-based tools and its IntelliReach business intelligence portal which helps clients manage and optimize talent strategy and performance on a global, regional and local level.

"ManpowerGroup Talent Solutions TAPFIN, with its significant global presence and capabilities, continues to strengthen its consulting-driven offerings across the CWM/MSP value chain. Its investments in technology, including IntelliReach analytics platform, and proven experience in offering flexible total talent solutions led to its position as a Leader on the Everest Group CWM/MSP PEAK Matrix® 2021," said Arkadev Basak, Vice President at Everest Group.
