NelsonHall's Vendor Evaluation & Assessment Tool (NEAT) assesses vendors against their ability to deliver immediate benefit to clients and meet their future requirements. 'Leader' positioning is based on a combination of analyst assessments and client feedback.

"We are proud to have earned 'leader' designation based on the independent, expert assessment of a top industry analyst as well as the feedback from our clients," said Jamiel Saliba, Global ManpowerGroup Solutions MSP (TAPFIN) practice leader. "The report affirms TAPFIN's unsurpassed ability to offer clients greater visibility into - and better management of - their contingent spend as well as our commitment to building successful and lasting partnerships that enable our clients to drive innovation, achieve business goals and outperform the competition."

TAPFIN was identified as a 'leader' for its ability to address clients' multi-country, multi-region and global needs, to manage agencies and suppliers neutrally, to optimize supplier mix and to provide a consolidated reporting and procurement methodology. The NEAT evaluation is accompanied by the market report 'Targeting Managed Service Programs', which provides a comprehensive assessment and insightful analysis of the MSP market and is designed to help organizations drive their talent acquisition and management strategy through Managed Services Program outsourcing.

"The evaluation by this top industry analyst recognizes ManpowerGroup Solutions' unmatched world of work expertise, in-depth knowledge of global trends and the highly competitive business environment that enable TAPFIN to deliver customized strategic solutions to meet and exceed clients' business needs," said Jonas Prising, ManpowerGroup CEO. "This recognition further reaffirms that ManpowerGroup Solutions (MSP) TAPFIN's outcome-focused ability to deliver global, complex and comprehensive workforce solutions to clients worldwide is on-target."
